

10th MANLIBNET Annual National Convention on

Organizational Excellence in Business and Management Libraries
Organizational Excellence in Business and Management Libraries s from Jan 22-24, 2009 at KIIT, Bhubaneswar

10th MANLIBNET Annual National Convention of inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Hari Gautam, Chancellor of KIIT University in presence of Dr. P. R. Goswami, President, MANLIBNET & Director, Central Secretariat Library, Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India, Mr. Akhtar Parvez, general Secretary, MANLIBNET & Manager, ICRA Limited, New Delhi, Prof. S. K. Dube, Pro Chancellor and Mr. L. C. Amarnathan, Registrar, KIIT at its premises on Thurs day 22nd January 2009, which will be concluded on Saturday 24th January, 2009.

On this occasion Dr. Goswami said, the meaning of Organizational Excellence goes beyond just achieving a particular standard. But in reality, excellence is neither a goal post nor is a destination whereby an organization can declare that it has arrived. It is about the continuous striving to be the best. To continue fulfilling these expectations, the library needs to find innovative ways to work smarter. He also expressed his happiness to the organizers of KIIT for choosing the most important facet "Organizational Excellence in Business and Management Libraries: Current Trend and Future Direction" which is the major theme of this Convention.