About the LDP Theme

Librarian's prime motto is to provide services in the best possible manner to the users. With emergence of digital technologies role and responsibilities of librarians are changing. A librarian is supposed to possesses new set of skills that require in this changing digital environment. Lack of these skills otherwise will hamper the quality of work of librarian and he won't be able to serve his users in best possible manner.

Keeping this in mind, a two day Librarian Development Programme is being organized by INMANTEC in collaboration with MANLIBNET. This Programme is aimed and designed to train & develop Library Professionals to meet the new skills requirement in the changing digital scenario. This programme will act as a catalyst to boost their knowledge and skills and they will turn to be an asset for the organization they work for.

Objectives of the LDP are:

1. To familiarize the participants with the emerging digital technology
2. To make them understand new challenges occurring in the library profession due to rise of digital technologies
3. To learn the new skills required to meet these challenges
4. Ways to further improve library services using digital technology
5. Learn new ways to better serve the users using technology edge
6. To unleash the hidden potential, overcoming the past conditioning and limited beliefs to become a better and complete librarian

Benefits

The proposed LDP will help the LIS Professionals to face new challenges posed by digital technologies, generate opportunities, convert failure into success and generate enthusiasm and motivation. It will also help in nurturing and promoting the hidden qualities of leadership within themselves.
